Atrocity propaganda: Photographs, Videos, Illustrations, Interviews

» Not bombs nor bread, but words, pictures, songs, parades, and many similar devices are the typical means of making propaganda. [...] Every war must appear to be a war of defense against a menacing, murderous aggressor. There must be no ambiguity about who the public is to hate.»

Harold Lasswell

Varoufakis – Böhmermann, 2015

«Information is evaluated based not on conformity to common standards of evidence or correspondence to a common understanding of the world, but on whether it supports the tribe’s values and goals and is vouchsafed by tribal leaders. “Good for our side” and “true” begin to blur into one.»

The Google Emails:

«Cognitive Dissonance»

coined by Leon Festinger in the 1950s

- counter to our worldview, it generates a cognitive dissonance: reality proves itself incompatible with our idea of it.
- since the state of cognitive dissonance is so disagreeable, people try to avoid it
- confirmation bias!
- > perceiving and taking seriously only such information that matches your worldview, while disregarding or squarely denying any other information.
